CODE OF CONDUCT

To help ensure our Members' happiness and a successful convention, we ask that you adhere to the following behavior policies. This is not to be taken personally as it is not based upon any past or assumed future conduct of any ATW Member at our event.

Everybody is here to have a good time, to learn new things and bond with other Members. Prejudicial remarks or behavior toward other convention attendees, committee members, hotel staff, or simply anyone on the grounds of race, religion, disability, ethnic background, sexual orientation or relationship orientation WILL NOT be tolerated at any time during the convention. We have a ZERO TOLERANCE policy toward any such behavior, verbal or physical.

RULES OF CONDUCT

Badge Responsibility

All attendees MUST wear and/or maintain badges at all times for the duration of the convention. You may gain access to all ATW seminars and banquets only if you have your ID Badge.

Respect Hotel Regulations

The hotel is not dedicated completely to our use during our conference. Please be considerate to non-convention individuals at all times. Respect common sense rules for public behavior, personal interaction, common courtesy, along with respect for public and private property.

Anyone who damages their hotel room or any hotel public property will be held financially responsible as well ejected from the convention.

Smoking is permitted in the several designated areas ONLY. The hotel does not offer smoking rooms and will fine any guest $175.00 for smoking in their room.

If you have a complaint concerning any hotel related issue, please utilize calm rationality when engaging a staff member or ask for assistance from one of the ATW Convention Committee to resolve your problem.

Member Interaction and Seminar Conduct

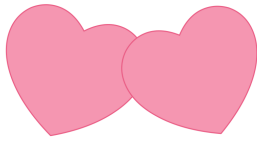

Please be respectful of the personal space of other members, speakers and committee members.

Our Speakers have generously volunteered their time to enlighten us with their knowledge of issues important to our membership. Please turn off cell phones, refrain from talking to others and give them your undivided attention during their presentations.

Do not bring any food or beverage into the seminars that is not provided within the convention agenda UNLESS it is related to a medical condition.

I understand and agree to the terms and conditions of the ATW Convention Code Of Conduct:
