ACCOMMODATIONS

Special room rates have been retained for our convention at a hotel that is also a sponsor of the Tiletown Trucker's Showdown.

When making your reservation you must identify that you are attending the ATW/Tiletown Trucker's Showdown Events to be given the special rate. The rate will apply beginning Thursday, July 6, 2006. Check-in time is 3:00 PM and check-out is Noon. ATW Sign In & Hospitality begins at 11:00 AM. ATW functions will begin at 2:00 PM that day so if you arrive prior to check-in time, the hotel will store your luggage. There will be breaks between seminars for you to check-in and settle into your room. All ATW seminars and events will include complimentary food and beverage with a cash bar on site during the social functions. The Event Agenda and Sign Up will be posted in the ATW Community Convention Forum by April 2006.

Upon arrival, you will need to sign in at the hospitality area, which will be identified in the lobby of the hotel. There you will be given your name badge, whereupon you will be allowed entrance to ATW functions. The Tiletown Trucker's Showdown begins at 4:00 PM on Friday, July 7th and is a separate event. Although there are no entrance fees, you will be responsible for your own expenses should you choose to stay through July 8th for the show. ATW will be operating a booth for the entire duration and hope all ATW Members choose to attend the Tiletown Trucker's Showdown to enjoy their events and represent our online community. A website for the Trucker's Showdown will soon be available for you to preview and once completed, the link will be posted in the ATW Community Convention Forum.

Further information concerning the hotel facilities can be accessed through their website at: www.howardjohnsongb.com of which also provides maps and area attractions. The Howard Johnson Inn provides free shuttle service to and from the Green Bay Austin Straubel Airport. Should you need this service, they will instruct you when you make your reservation.
